al and Money Matters. THURSDAY P. M. The sales were rather larger to-day, and there was a rather better feeling.

The sales of State Stocks were to moderate extent. State Sevens improved \(\frac{1}{2}\) per cent. ; Ohio Sixes declined \(\frac{1}{2}\); Ken-There has been a fair business done in Foreign Exchange to-day for the steamer of the 1st, and the market is rathe Alabama is rather worse to-day. The demand is limited We quote 134 a 14, discount.

The shipments of specie to New-Orleans continues. Quite a large amount will go out by the next packet. Some specie is coming this way from Philadelphia, in consequence of the rate of bills there on this city.

Another swindling operation was detected last evening. A Frenchman, whose name we did not learn, who lived in Brocklyn, being a neighbor of Mr. Livingsten, a broker is Wall-street, got into his confidence, borrowed money of him at various times, and succeeded at last in getting from him about five thousand dollars in uncurrent money, which as a matter of friendship, he promised to have changed for He may have performed this promise, but he tted the important ceremony of returning the amount to Mr. Livingston. He had been in the habit of berrowing oney in checks on the Brooklyn Banks, dated two or three days ahead, purporting to be drawn ky houses which were known to be perfectly good, and then in order to save Mr. Livingston the trouble of sending to Brooklyn, would bring the money and take them up. These checks, it is now disovered, were forgeries. This financier has been arrested. and we are told made several attempts to throw himself everboard while crossing the Ferry We have still another fraud to chronicle. A young man, gamed Michael Kelly, offered for sale at several places in Wall-street forged bills of Exchange on London for £160. They purport to be drawn by Mr. Edward J. Mann, of 12 Front-street, on Chas. B. S. Gray, Esq., London and are endorsed by Messrs, Middleton & Co., 54 Broad-street, and Messis. Stokes & Anthony, No. 63 Broad-street. Kelly states that he received the bills from St. John's, N. F. He is only 19 years of age. He was arrested.

A sole of the Millington Bank of Maryland of $5, altered to read Commercial Bank of Philadelphia, was passed in Philadelphia.

We stat d a few days since that a Committee of the Tenpessee Legislature have addressed a circular to the Banks asking an expression of opinion of the subject of an issue of Post Notes, and we expressed a hope that the plan would be considered. We are happy to see that the Banks are of the same opinion as ourselves, and decline the issue.

At St. Louis money is very scarce. The Banks and offices are not discounting, and are rapidly curtailing former loans. City Scrip, 43 per cent. discount. Markets-Carefully reported for The Tribune

THURSDAY, Oct. 27. ASHES-The market continues rather heavy, with an judisposition on the part of buyers to take hold. We hear of sales of 70 to 30 bbls. Pots, at $5.50; and 40 to 50 Pearls, at $5.874. There are no bills out to-day, and the receipts are about 125 bbls.

COTTON-There is a better feeling among shippers and the sales yesterday reached nearly 1,200 bales, includiga lot of 630 bales New-Orleans, ordinary, old crop, at a cents. The sales to-day are about 500 bales, without hange. Upland, 6 a 9; fair, 8 a 8; New-Orleans and Mobile, 6 a 10%; fair, 94 a 94.

IT Fall Style of Gentlemen's Hats. -BIRD corner of Pine and Nassau-streets, has now ready for in spection and sale the Pall Standard Pattern for Gentle men's Hats

To Spencer announces to gentlemen that his arrange ments are now completed for supplying according to provious intimation, A FINE FUR HAT at a price (83 25) which shall render it emphatically the cheapest as well a lowest priced Gentlemen's Fur Hat ever on sale in this city. It is prepared in the same style which characterizes our finest article, and like that article is offered at a price at which it cannot be continued without an unusually rapid sale. The undersigned with all confidence athrms it to be for the gentleman and economist the most desirable Fur Hat yet offered. (020ti) SPENCER, 245 Broadway.

I Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 157 Broad way, would inform the gentlemen of New-York that his Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our cil mate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others hav seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following of European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats a $5.50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashiand durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $1.50. These he recommend as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other.

Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the cheapest of the best Hat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied.

Try him. ($20tf) O. FISH, 157 Broadway.

with the liver complaint, dyspepsia, and general debility through my whole nervous system, with many weakly complaints peculiar to females during which time I have been a great sufferer, both in body and mind. I have employed four different physicians without any lasting benefit. I called upon Doctor Thomson last week and have since followed his directions rigidly, and my improvement has been so sudden and rapid that I now feel better than I have before in two years. I believe from the evidence I have seen at the Doctor's office of the success of his practice since he came to this city, two months and a half, no one would regret the time and trouble after having paid him a visit.

To this medicine I attribute the great success which has attended me during a long and extensive practice. I discovered the happy combination after infinite pains-taking and repeated experiments. I look upon it as an old alchem ist would have looked upon the clirir vita or the philosopher's stone, had he been able to discover either. It is the ne plus ultra of remedies, and I always call it my infallible health pill. To men of sedentary pursuits; to females, whose duties confine them within doors; to persons going to sea, where the want of exercise is apt to engender that dull sensation always attendant upon a disordered state of the stomach, I have treely recommended these pills; and I have used them in numerous cases of acute disorder, and always with the most satisfactory success. There is not a amily in which I practice, that I suffer to go unprovided with a box of them. Their great virtue is that they arrest disease in its first approach. They are preventives as well as remedies; and I will venture to say that, if taken by per, sons when they are first affected with symptoms of illness, many and many a case that is either serious or fatal might be avoided. To Rev. J. Covert—Dear Sir: I feel it an imperative duty, which I owe to you and the public, to state something of the benefits which I have received from your justly so called Balm or Liff. For some time past I have been laboring under an affection of the lungs. They were so affected that while lying on either side the matter would onze or discharge itself out of my mouth in an alarming manner, and I was considered beyond all hope of cure by my Physicians and friends; but to the joy and surprise of all, after using several bottles of your Balm of Life, I am so far recovered as to be able to attend to my daily labor. I have covered as to be able to attend to my daily labor. I have been able, within a short time past to plough and harrow in my field all day. I cannot withhold my unqualified approbation of your medicine. It exceeds any thing that has ever come to my knowledge. The pains in my breast, which were very severe, and a cough which was tearing me all to pieces, and annoying me 18 hours out of 24, are now entirely relieved. I am sin yours most fully now entirely relieved. I am, sir, yours most truly,
